#	Responses	Date
1	He is better than Jeffery Li, and he always showed up in class, but Jeffery sometimes did not.	12/10/2015 3:32 PM
2	I really liked the way Steven was personable to all students he came into contact with, even if the questions were beginning to seem a bit frustrating. A good teacher.	12/8/2015 2:54 PM
3	I thought Steven was great at explaining concepts and presenting material. When he worked through problems, he always made sure to explain what he was doing and it was easy to follow his logic and process. He was a good presenter and teacher.	12/7/2015 6:28 PM
4	Superb GSI. He knows his content, he can teach his content, and he is very accesible during office hours. One of the best GSIs i've had	12/7/2015 9:46 AM
5	I found Steven to have a natural ability in teaching us in discussion section. Whenever we didn't understand, he gave us an example to view a problem in a new light. This skill is very commendable and I feel like I was lucky to have gotten Steven as a GSI.	12/4/2015 5:12 PM
6	He was very kind and he always tried to help students. Thank you	12/4/2015 12:36 AM
7	Practice problems in class should be used more (like the last few weeks)	12/3/2015 11:11 AM
8	He goes a bit too fast from time to time	12/3/2015 11:02 AM
9	As we mentioned in the last review, you sometimes talk pretty fast. But you really seem to know the material and your work is easy to follow on the boards. Also, you're cute.	12/2/2015 8:52 PM
10	Steven often tries to find a solution or explanation for a particular problem as soon as possible, whether the day of or the day after, which is very crucial to students with unanswered questions.	12/1/2015 12:50 PM
11	Steven was the best GSI I had this semester! He really is a very friendly guy who is great at explaining difficult concepts that were not often clear from lecture alone.	12/1/2015 11:03 AM

12	It's not fair for the GSI's or students who got stuck with the discussion the day before lecture	11/30/2015 8:42 AM
